

Press release – Zermatt, March 2018

To be continued!

Rufibach & Friends: successful guest chef events at the Grand Hotel Zermatterhof

At the end of January, Heinz Rufibach, Chef de Cuisine at the Grand Hotel Zermatterhof, began holding a series of events with an exclusive offer for lovers of fine food and drink. On the first evening, he was joined in the kitchen of Prato Borni by the Three Musketeers of five-star gastronomy: Hans Nussbaumer, Othmar Schlegel and Peter Wyss. At the end of February, he hosted Claudio Del Principe, author and food blogger. Both events attracted gourmets from both near and far. The Alpine Gourmet Prato Borni was completely booked.

For the third evening of Rufibach & Friends, Jacky Donatz will be joining Heinz Rufibach in the kitchen at the Zermatterhof on 26 March 2018 to create a refined four-course meal with choice wines (CHF 175.00 per person). His mezzelune and veal cutlets are classics that have made Jacky Donatz famous well beyond the borders of Switzerland. He is a passionate chef and host. At the Zermatterhof, he will once again prove that cooking continues to be his passion even after his retirement – much to the pleasure of his guests.

Rufibach & Friends is returning

The first events were a great success. Gourmets can rejoice that Rufibach & Friends will be returning once more! Information about upcoming dates and guest chefs will be posted at zermatterhof.ch as soon as possible.

To reserve a table for the event on 26 March 2018, please call the reception desk at the Zermatterhof on +41 27 966 66 00.

Contact for more information:

Roman Haller, Matterhorn Group
roman.haller@zermatt.net
+41 27 966 67 71